

[Vol. 1] Seoul Family Center Multicultural Family Employment-Focused Agency Webzine Vol. 1
 A Reliable Employment Partner for Multicultural Families, [Seoul Multicultural Family
 Employment-Focused Agency]

[INTRO]

The webzine of the Seoul Multicultural Family Employment-Focused Agency serves as a communication channel that provides valuable information to support the successful employment of multicultural families. In this inaugural issue, we introduce the institution's programs, various training and services for employment success, as well as highlights from the job fair.

[Seoul Family Center]

The Seoul Family Center is a delivery system for Seoul's family policies, developing and distributing Seoul-type family services, and is taking the lead in spreading diverse family-inclusive cultures and strengthening social safety nets together with the family centers of 25 autonomous districts in Seoul.

The Seoul Family Center is with Seoul, a family-friendly city that moves toward healthy families and a healthy society.

This is an organization that provides services such as job search and counseling, job training programs, employment-related information, and job fair operations to help multicultural families achieve economic independence and a stable life.

Program Target	Marriage immigrants seeking employment
Program Period	Every Tuesday and Thursday from August to December, 9:00-17:30
Program Details	We offer personalized 1:1 consulting for resumes and cover letters to support marriage immigrants in achieving job success. Along with preparing documents tailored to your desired field, we also provide tips for beginners writing these for the first time. Additionally, through AI mock interviews, you can practice answering a variety of questions and improve your interview skills using detailed analysis reports. This is also a great opportunity to boost confidence for those who feel nervous about face-to-face interviews.

Feedbacks	“I was so overwhelmed with writing my resume and self-introduction, but the career counselor made it easy for me, which was nice.” “I was nervous because it felt like I was actually going to have an interview, but it was nice to be able to practice beforehand.”

〈Accelerated Employment Training〉

The Seoul Multicultural Family Employment Center offers three types of training programs: basic employment, accelerated employment, and professional workforce development. The accelerated employment program includes obtaining private certifications and provides practical training conducted by industry experts, along with recruitment information tailored to service field professionals.

Program Target	Marriage immigrants seeking employment in the field of housekeeping support services/shop managers
Program Period	2024. 7. 2 ~ 8. 6 2024. 7. 25 ~ 9. 2 , Special lecture and recruiting day, 1 day
Program Details	〈Storage Organizer Specialist Course〉 This course focuses on acquiring storage organizing skills, transforming them into professional competencies that can lead to employment opportunities. It is practice-oriented, making it easy to develop expertise even with limited language proficiency. Additionally, the course provides significant benefits for improving household management. 〈Shop Master Training Course〉 This program provides essential skills and knowledge in the fashion retail sector, supporting participants in securing employment in related fields. Shop managers benefit from better treatment with increased experience and enjoy the flexibility of career transitions, with rewards based on their abilities. This profession is particularly appealing for duty-free shops, online malls, and other workplaces catering to foreign customers, making it ideal for marriage immigrants regardless of their country of origin or age, leveraging their unique strengths.
